

God Bless America

We once looked to you for our hope and our dreams.
 Now, it just seems like there are so many schemes.
 There are con artists on every corner People getting killed left and right.
 God, could you just take her hand again and hold her through the night?

You see all the hate, all the pain, when will it stop?
 On every street corner you see a cop.
 We have made prisons out of our homes, latch key is a common word.
 Too many of our children are never heard.

So God, would you please Bless America again?
 She's worn and tired and so full of sin.
 Babies killing babies, oh where will it end...
 Are we blind to this or are we just trying to pretend?

We can't ignore what's happening anymore.
 Seems like living is just such a chore.
 God, I want to live in peace and harmony with all.
 Oh please help America to once again stand tall.

You blessed us once, I know you can do it again.
 I know how much you hate all this sin.
 God, Could you look down from the heavens tonight.
 And help us with this awful fight?

The fight against sin is just too much for us.
 But, I know, we can clean up our Bibles and get rid of the dust.
 We need you God, Could you please Bless America again
 And help us get rid of all this sin?

America The Beautiful

 O, Beautiful for spacious skies, (Deuteronomy 33:13).
 For amber waves of grain, (Deuteronomy 33:16).

 Above the fruitful plain! (Genesis 49:26).

#2
 America! America! (Genesis 48:21).
 God shed His Grace on thee, (Genesis 48:16).
 And crown thy good with brotherhood. (Genesis 48:20)
 From sea to shining sea! (Ezekiel 47:18-20).

#3
 O, Beautiful for pilgrim feet, (Deuteronomy 33:13).
 Whose stern, impassioned stress, (Genesis 49:23).
 Thoroughfare for freedom beat, (Psalms 72:8).
 Across the wilderness! (Deuteronomy 32:8-11).
